

Communiqué

Information About Our Website: Its New Form After the Union

1. We are happy to inform visitors to our website that the Official Dialogue for Union between our Synod in Resistance and the other major Old Calendarist Synod in Greece has come to an auspicious conclusion and that, following the informatory gatherings of our clergy and laity, the union was brought to fruition yesterday, March 5/18, 2014, in joint deliberation by both sides, and is now a reality, by the Grace of the Lord.

2. There no longer exists a Holy Synod in Resistance or a President thereof, inasmuch as the union has brought forth a single and unified Synod of the Church of the True Orthodox Christians of Greece (or The Old Calendar Orthodox Church of Greece) under Archbishop Kallinikos, President of the Holy Synod.

3. Our website will henceforth be the official website of the new Holy Metropolis of Oropos and Phyle.

4. The structure of our new website, adjusted to the needs of our Metropolis, demands radical changes and adjustments to the preëxisting one, so as to reflect the new ecclesiastical and synodal state of affairs; and our work, in this regard, will commence as soon as possible, with the help of God.

*From the Chancery of the Holy Metropolis
Wednesday, March 6/19, 2014*